

Since I am paying for these services, NAB should back off and the FCC should reject NAB's petition 04-160. XM deserves to air its own programming, including weather and traffic.